of the Battle.

Tokio, Sept. 5.—(8 p. m.)—A mass of official reports on the battle of Liao Yang reached the imperial headquarters today, but they will not be given out until it is possible to put them in order and make from them a connected and detailed story. In the meantime headquarters are refraining from giving anything to the public.

It is generally known that General Kuropatkin succeeded, by means of a desperate rear guard action and strong and well handled flank inovements in withdrawing the great bulk of the Russian army, and that he cut bridges to hamper the Japanese pursuit. Critical interest centers in the operations of the Japanese rights wing which occurred late Friday night and early Saturday morning. General Kuroki then swung to the westward, his movement being designed to flank the remainder of the Russians left at Liao Yang itself. It is believed here that General Kuropatkin is bound to lose many prisoners to the Japanese. It is possible, however, that the topographical difficulties and the overwhelming opposition of the Russians may check this movement on the part of General Kuroki.

already completed a preliminary bomboardment of Kuroki's force Friday and was about to strike him when he discovered that another Japanese column had crossed the river further up the stream, and he worked around still further northward. The latter column was marching with great rapidity westward to cut the railroad and close the door on the Russian retreat to Mukden. Just at this point there is a hiatus in the reports. Whether Kuropatkin actually at the roll of the Russians to deliver a blow against Kuroki is not clear. At all events, if he did he was compelled to desist upon the discovery of the northerly Japanese column. The latter took him by surprise.

PUSHING NORTHWARD.

Even Mukden Too Hot For Retreating Russians.

London, Sept. 6 .- The Daily Mail this morning prints a dispatch from Sin-mintin, dated Sept. 5, giving a report that General Kuropatkin's retreat has been cut off. The dispatch goes on to say that the Russian troops had advanced in strong force to the southeast of Mukden as far as Japing hill to oppose any possible attack in the direction of their advance.

A Chinese official who arrived from Mukden Sunday says that the Russian troops are leaving for the north, that there are 18,000 men ten miles to the east of the city, that the officers and east of the city, that the officers and will be the mobilization of two more much sickness prevails much sickness prevails.

ANOTHER DAY COMING. Russians Will Send More Men to the Front. St. Petersburg, Sept. 5, 1:15 a. m The feeling of national grief and dis-appointment caused by General Kuro-patkin's unsuccessful attempt to make a stand at Liao Yang, deep and bitter as it is, is somewhat tempered by the development of the fact that the Russian commander in chief had removed the bulk of his stores northward before the battle, leaving a mere shell at Liao Yang, and that he succeeded in extricating his army, especially General Stakelberg's corps, from the clutches of the Japanese. The war office here believes that the battle is virtually ended and that Kuropatkin's line of retreat is open. While admitting that Kuropatkin sustained a severe reverse, the war office considers that the failure of Field Marshal Oya-ma to hold and cut off Kuropatkin is a strategic defeat for Oyama. The Russian military authorities figure that Oyama had a numerical superiority of 60,000 men in the operations against Kuropatkin.

Exact Position Unknown.

The exact position of the Russian cited masculine voice inquired of Deputy Sheriff Alva Stout at an early hour this morning as to whether "Sheriff Emery had a deputy named Shepherd." The man at the other end of the line explained that a man claiming to be "Deputy Sheriff Shapherd" was attempting to force his way into the speaker's house, 47 Pearl avenue, for the purpose of making an arrest. Deputy Stout informed the inquirer that there was no one named Shepherd under Sheriff Emery and arryised him to throw the impostor cut, No further word was heard concerning the matter.

"I enjoyed good health until about two years ago when I moticed my back began to ache frequently, it became sore and lame, and headache soon added to my misery; also found that my general health diminished. I became thin and weak and nervous, having severe pains at regular intervals," writes Mrs. Augustus Emory. Treasurer New Century Club, at Dean Street (Roxbury), Boston, Mass. She continues: "My work which before had seemed an easy task soon seemed like a heavy burden. I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which several of ity friends praised so highly. I felt relief within a week, my appetite came back, the pains gradually decreased and I enjoyed sound sleep. Within fourteen weeks I had completely recovered my health. I seemed built up anew, my pulse, which had been weak became normal, and new life animated my entire being. I gladly endorse your medicine."

General Orloff's divisions, which suffered so severely, had just arrived from European Russia. Although this division was thrown into confusion and lost a frightful number of men, the temporary check it was able to give the Japanese probably saved the railroad for Kuropatkin. In the meantime Kuroki, freed from Kuropatkin, marched hastily westward to intercept General Stakelberg, who was crossing the give from the left bank. It was then that Kuropatkin thought Stakelberg's corps was lost and so reported to the war office. But Kuroki was too late. Stakelberg not only succeeded in getting his corps across but marched.

Official figures of the Japanese losses and a list of the trophies captured are expected to reach Tokio tomorrow. It is believed here that General Kuropatkin's next stand will be made at Mukden, although there is defensible ground south of there.

Field Marshal Yamagata, chief of the general staff, and Lieutenant General Teraouchi were the hosts at a banquet given tonight in honor of the Liao Yang victory. The emperor has undergone a great strain during the past week. His main fear during the last few days was hat Kuropatkin would be cut off. Like his subjects, the emperor has taken Kuropatkin's defeat greatly to heart, but the preservation of the army organization has been a great relief and his answer to the battle of Liao Yang the emperor shows no disposition to Put on Brave Face.

The wives and families of many of the lower classes of the people spend most of their time in the churches, praying that their loved ones may be spared.

The accounts of the battle published in the newspapers here are very in-complete. Some of the papers evident y have not yet awakened to the full force of the disaster, but without exception they try to put a brave face on the situation. There is not the slightest suggestion of yielding. The ery of the papers is that the war m go on until Russia is victorious, if not this year, then next year.

Viceroy Bitterly Assailed by German Correspondent.

Berlin, Sept. 5.—Colonel Gaedke, the war correspondent of the Tageblatt, writing from Liab Yang under date of Aug. 9, declared that it was not the intention of General Kuropatkin to defrend Liao Yang to the uttermost, but to retreat to the next position, which was said to be Tieling, about sixty miles north of Mukden, which has long since been strongly fortified.

New York Sept. 5.—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York National league team, sustained a dislocation of the left ankle and a possible fracture of some of the bones of the foot with the conclusion of the double-header between the New York and Boston clubs this afternoon. When Mertes made a hit to center field which brought in the winning run in the second game, a large number of persons surged out on the diamond, and some of the more enthusiastic raised the members of the New York team to their shoulders. McGraw tripped and fell in front of the on-rushing mob and was trampled on by many feet before being extricated.

A surgeon who examined the injured member at the clubhouse gave him temporary relief and ordered his removal to a hospital.

Cricket Teams Meet, actually arriving in time to come to the support of hard pressed Orloff.

The war office professes ignorance of the losses of guns and men sustained by the Russians, but there is no doubt that many thousands have fallen.

The refreat of Kuropatkin has evidently thrown everything into confusion at the front and the reports received are meagre and incomplete.

The military expert of the Novoe Vremya says the chief question of the moment is whether Kuropatkin will succeed in collecting all his forces from Liao Yang and effecting a retirement.

Cricket Teams Meet,

Primaries to elect delegates to the emocratic state convention will be eld in all the voting districts of Sait Lake county at 8 o'clock. Indications ended and interesting. The county committee and the various chairmen have succeeded in getting the organization of the party in better shape han for years past, and the great in-erest thus awakened is expected to make itself felt in the primaries to-night. Salf Lake county will name 121 delegates to the convention, which meets in the Salt Lake theatre Thursday forenoon at 10:30.
